

Abiding in Messiah

To “abide” Hebrew: Yashab: to sit is to live, continue, or remain; dwell so, to abide in OWYאז (Yahusha) is to live in Him or remain in Him. When a person is saved, they are described as being “in Messiah” (Romans 8:1; 2 Corinthians 5:17), held secure in a permanent relationship (John 10:28-29). Therefore, abiding in OWYאז (Yahusha) is required of all true believers. The difference between those abiding in Messiah and those not is the difference between the chosen and the lost.

Abiding in OWYאז (Yahusha) is taught in 1 John 2:5-6, where it is synonymous with “knowing” OWYאז (Yahusha) (verses 2 and 3). Later in the same chapter, John equates “remaining” in the Father and the Son with having the promise of eternal life (verses 24 and 25).

The phrase “abiding in Messiah” pictures an intimate, close relationship, and not just a superficial acquaintance. In John 15:4-7, OWYאז (Yahusha) tells His disciples that having salvation is essential, using the picture of branches united to a vine. Without the oneness with OWYאז (Yahusha) which salvation provides, there can be no life and no productivity. Elsewhere, Scripture likens this union to that of a head and a body (Colossians 1:18).

There are proofs that one abides in OWYאז (Yahusha) (i.e., proofs that one is truly chosen and not just pretending). These proofs include obedience to OWYאז (Yahusha)’s commands (John 15:10; 1 John 3:24); following OWYאז (Yahusha)’s example (1 John 2:6); living free from habitual sin (1 John 3:6); and the awareness of a divine presence within one’s life (1 John 4:13).

ABIDE

a-bid': Old English word signifying progressively to "await," "remain," "lodge," "sojourn," "dwell," "continue," "endure"; represented richly in Tanakh (Old Testament) by 12 Hebrew words and in New Testament has as many Greek words. The Hebrew and Greek originals in most frequent use are yashabh, "to dwell"; meno, "to remain." "Abide (sit or tarry) ye here" (Genesis 22:5); "The earth abide (continueth) forever" (Ecclesiastes 1:4); "Who can abide (bear or endure) the day?" (Malachi 3:2); "Afflictions abide (await) me" (Acts 20:23). The past tense abode, in frequent use, has the same meaning. "His bow abide (remained) in strength" (Genesis 49:24); "There he abide" (dwelt) (John 10:40).

Abode, as a noun (Greek mone) twice in New Testament: "make our abide with him" (John 14:23); "mansions," the Revised Version, margin "abiding-places" (John 14:2). The soul of the true disciple and heaven are dwelling-places of the Father, Son and Ruach HaKodesh.

The regular dictionary contains several definitions for the word "abide." These definitions are: to put up with, tolerate; wait patiently for; to withstand; to dwell; to remain in place; and to conform to. These are all good definitions, but in the original usage (Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek), the meanings of the word go much deeper.

There are multiple different words in the original Greek and Hebrew for the word (abide) in the English language. The first of these words, epimeno, is the strengthened form of another verb, meno, which means "intensive." The word epimeno sometimes indicates perseverance in continuing to do something. The second word, katameno, is a verb that means "constant residence" or "frequent resort." Another word, parameno, means "to continue" and is sometimes used to express confidence in abiding with a person. One really neat word is hupomeno which means "to remain in a place instead of leaving it; to stay behind or persevere." Finally, the word prosmeno is used in several different situations to indicate a persistent loyalty or a continuance in doing something.

We see the root from which all the other verbs come is meno which was defined as meaning "intensive." This is important because it indicates that the verbs that stem from this root have a meaning beyond the face value of the word. A good example of this is when two children in grade school say that they love each other. It doesn't mean very much to them and they take it at face value. However, if those two children were to grow up and marry, the word love would have much more depth and meaning because the two would more fully comprehend what they were saying.

ABIDING

It really isn't until John 15:10 that we get a picture of what it looks like to abide in OWYAZL (Yahusha).

"If you keep my Commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's Commandments and abide in his love."

To abide in OWYAZL (Yahusha) means to keep his Commandments and to keep his Commandments means to love AYAZL (Yahuah) with all our hearts and souls and minds and to love our neighbor as ourselves (Matthew 22:37–39). One way that we display our love for AYAZL (Yahuah) is through our trust, prayer, and devotion to him. We abide through relationship. We pursue in love. We pray in love. We obey in love.

And here is the good news: We love AYAZL (Yahuah) because he first loved us (1 John 4:19). We didn't choose him; he chose us and he chose us to walk out our Amanah (faith) in obedience to him (John 15:16). Apart from OWYAZL (Yahusha), we cannot do anything (John 15:5). He provides the ability and the strength.

The fruit that OWYAZL (Yahusha) speaks of is simply evidence of a relationship with him. It is a relationship that he initiates through and by his sovereign love. In this chapter, OWYAZL (Yahusha) reminds us that there is no greater love than someone laying down his life for his friends. He then says, “You are my friends if you do what I command you” (John 15:13).

OWYאז (Yahusha) tells us that we are his friends (let that soak in for a minute) if we obey his Command to love, and that Command is fulfilled through abiding. As we abide in him we will bear the fruit of righteousness. And the offer to be OWYאז (Yahusha)’s friend — the author and perfecter of our Amanah (faith), the Aleph (Alpha) and Tav (Omega), the Beautiful One.

Abide in him, and he will abide in you. He who began a good work in you will complete it (Philippians 1:6). He who called you is faithful; he will surely do it (1 Thessalonians 5:24).

NOT ABIDING

The dictionary defines abiding as to accept or act in accordance with a rule, decision, or recommendation. Synonyms include obey, observe, follow, uphold, heed, and accept. This definition isn’t far off from what OWYאז (Yahusha) is telling us to do here in John 15. But before he gets to the meaning, he gives us a picture of what it looks like not to abide in him. “If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers, and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned” (John 15:6).

John 15:4–6. He explains that by not abiding in him we will soon fall off the vine — our roots where we receive nourishment were never truly planted. The fruit of the vine is proof of our amanah (faith).

John 15:1-27 “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. ...

Galatians 2:20 I have been put to death with Messiah. It is no longer I who live, but Messisah who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by Amanah (faith) in the Son of אYאז (Yahuah), who loved me and gave himself for me.

Psalms 27:4-5 One thing have I asked of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah), that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) and to inquire in his temple. For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock.

For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) abides forever.

Romans 11:22 Note then the kindness and the severity of AYAZL (Yahuah): severity toward those who have fallen, but AYAZL (Yahuah)'s kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off.

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into OWYAZL (Yahusha) were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Messiah was raised from the dead by the esteem of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. ...

A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." ...

He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; and he looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. What more was there to do for my vineyard, that I have not done in it? When I looked for it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.

Psalms 1:1-6 Baruch (Blessed) is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the Torah (law) of יְהוָה (Yahuah), and on his Torah (law) he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

It is amazing how when a word is translated from one language to another, it loses a large amount of its original meaning and gains an entirely different meaning. The word "abide" is one of those words. See, people don't really know what this word means and so assume that it is not an important word. However, this word is very important not only to understanding several life changing principles that are found in Scripture, but also for a person's own private knowledge.

We use the word abide in our everyday lives, yet don't fully comprehend what we are saying. When someone says that he will abide by his word, he probably means that he will do what he has said that he would do. This is not the true meaning of the word abide. When we abide in something, we are loyal to it even unto death. When we abide, we remain in a certain place even when the rest of the world has left us behind. To abide means to continue doing whatever is being done even when it is hard and the urge to quit is almost too much. The word abide means to cling to something and have Amanah (faith) in it, even when it seems to have failed. Sometimes "abide" is used with some of the meanings that are in today's English dictionary, but the above mentioned usages are also a large part of the way this word fits into our language. If the world truly understood the meaning of this awesome word, then I don't think that people would use it so carelessly.

In conclusion, while it is often misunderstood, the word "abide" has a very rich and deep history and meaning. And understanding this word is essential to understanding many concepts found in Scripture.
