

Provision and Protection

As humans, we want to see אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)'s protection as a magic force field that keeps us from all harm. Yes, אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) has to stop any evil or destruction, but we must remember that we live in a fallen world where we have free will and sometimes אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) works in ways that we do not understand. Sometimes אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)'s protection comes in the form of Shalum (Peace) and strength in the middle of despair. Sometimes אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)'s protection comes as an ending because he sees something more on the horizon that we cannot see. As a believer in אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah), we are promised a new life covered under the protection of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) in which nothing can separate us from His love. Rest knowing that no matter what hardship you face, אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) is your provider and protector!

There are at least 169 verses in Scripture that refer to the ways אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) provides for us. Philippians 4:19 puts it simply: "My Alahym (God) will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in אַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) HaMashiach." While prosperity seekers might always be looking for money or possessions to miraculously arrive, we should take a closer look at what אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) desires to provide for us.

PROVISION

אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah)'s intent is to help us develop to be like Mashiach (Messiah), so that we become salt and light in the world Matthew 5:13–14. אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) does not want us to see Him as a heavenly source of mere material possessions. Acquiring things is not the fundamental goal of this life Luke 12:15.

אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) differentiates between our needs and our wants because He knows that where our treasure is our heart is also Matthew 6:21. He wants us to know that this world is not our home and that part of what we need is to shift our focus to the eternal life while still living this one.

אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) is concerned with every part of our being: Ruach (Spirit), Soul, and Body. As the facets of His character are infinite, so the ways אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) provides for us are beyond anything we can ask or imagine Ephesians 3:20.

We can trust His goodness, guidance, and shepherding care to do more for us than we could ever achieve on our own. אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) provides a way for us to develop an intimate, conversational, obedient relationship with Him so that we can lead ourselves and others into a “Psalm 23” quality of life. Those whose shepherd is וְיָשׁוּעָא (Yahusha) can say, “I lack nothing” Psalm 23:1.

In the Adon’s Prayer, וְיָשׁוּעָא (Yahusha) teaches His disciples to ask for provision (6720 tsedah means: provision, food), and our dependence on אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) is affirmed each time we pray, “Give us this day our daily bread” Matthew 6:11. In Matthew 6:24–25, וְיָשׁוּעָא (Yahusha) tells His disciples not to worry about food or clothing. The Father knows our needs. He desires covenant relationship with us, and that involves trusting Him to meet our daily requirements and seeking (1st) first His kingdom and righteousness Matthew 6:33.

Psalm 84:11 states, “No good thing does He withhold from those who walk uprightly.” This verse carries a reminder that there is a part we play in אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)’s provision coming to fruition in our lives. We must walk uprightly (righteously).

James 4:3 is an answer to our questions about why prayers sometimes go unanswered: “When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.” אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) sees the heart, and our prayers’ motivations are important to Him.

Many passages about אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)’s provision relate to our need for food and clothing and the daily, physical needs of life. Others refer to the needs of our Soul and Ruach (Spirit), our inner man. He provides us with Shalum (Peace) John 14:27, comfort (2 Corinthians 1:4), and “power, love and self-discipline” 2 Timothy 1:7. In fact, He “has Baruch (Blessed) us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual Barachah (Blessing) in OWYָּאֵל (Yahusha)” Ephesians 1:3. In whatever physical state we find ourselves, we can be content in OWYָּאֵל (Yahusha) Philippians 4:12.

Passages such as Galatians 1:15 and Jeremiah 1:5 give us an assurance that אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)’s love and direction began even before conception. What a gift to know that אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) has been involved in our lives from the very start! His love for us is encompassed in His desire for our highest good. He is truly אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)-Yireh, (אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) your Provider or אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Who Provides).

אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)’s provision extends to His ongoing relationship to all of His creation, which is deeply dependent on Him Psalm 104:21. Often, we take for granted the rain that falls, the Sun that comes up every morning, the refreshing winds that blow, and the tides that cleanse our shores and invigorate the life in our vast oceans. But all these things are watched over by our loving Alahym (God) in His provision for us.

1 Corinthians 16:13 Be on your guard; stand firm in the Amanah (Faith); be courageous; be strong.

1 Timothy 6:11 But you, man of AYAZL (Yahuah), flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, Caddishness, Amanah (Faith), love, endurance and gentleness.

1 Thessalonians 1:3 We remember before our Aluah and Father your work produced by Amanah (Faith), your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Adon, OWYAZL (Yahusha) HaMashiach.

1 Corinthians 2:5 so that your Amanah (Faith) might not rest on human wisdom, but on AYAZL (Yahuah)'s power.

Hebrews 11:1-39 Now Amanah (Faith) is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. 2 This is what the ancients were commended for. 3 By Amanah (Faith) we understand that the universe was formed at AYAZL (Yahuah)'s command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible. 4 By Amanah (Faith) Abel brought AYAZL (Yahuah) a better offering than Cain did. By Amanah (Faith) he was commended as righteous, when AYAZL (Yahuah) spoke well of his offerings. And by Amanah (Faith) Abel still speaks, even though he is dead. 5 By Amanah (Faith) Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death: "He could not be found, because AYAZL (Yahuah) had taken him away." For before he was taken, he was commended as (1) one who pleased AYAZL (Yahuah). 6 And without Amanah (Faith) it is impossible to please AYAZL (Yahuah), because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him. 7 By Amanah (Faith) Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in Kadosh (Holy) fear built an ark to save his family. By his Amanah (Faith) he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that is in keeping with Amanah (Faith). 8 By Amanah (Faith) Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. 9 By Amanah (Faith) he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. 10 For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is Alahym. 11 And by Amanah (Faith) even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she considered him faithful who had made the promise. 12 And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore. 13 All these people were still living by Amanah (Faith) when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. 14 People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. 15 If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore אַיָּאָל (Yahuah) is not ashamed to be called their Aluah (God), for he has prepared a city for them. 17 By Amanah (Faith) Abraham, when אַיָּאָל (Yahuah) tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice. He who had embraced the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son, 18 even though אַיָּאָל (Yahuah) had said to him, “It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.” 19 Abraham reasoned that אַיָּאָל (Yahuah) could even raise the dead, and so in a manner of speaking he did receive Isaac back from death. 20 By Amanah (Faith) Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau in regard to their future. 21 By Amanah (Faith) Jacob, when he was dying, Baruch (Blessed) each of Joseph’s sons, and worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff. 22 By Amanah (Faith) Joseph, when his end was near, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt and gave instructions concerning the burial of his bones. 23 By Amanah (Faith) Moses’ parents hid him for (3) three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king’s edict. 24 By Amanah (Faith) Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh’s daughter. 25 He chose to be mistreated along with the people of אַיָּאָל (Yahuah) rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of Sin. 26 He regarded disgrace for the sake of Mashiach (Messiah) as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. 27 By Amanah (Faith) he left Egypt, not fearing the king’s anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. 28 By Amanah (Faith) he kept the Passover and the application of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Yisrael. 29 By Amanah (Faith) the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned. 30 By Amanah (Faith) the walls of Jericho fell, after the army had marched around them for (7) seven days. 31 By Amanah (Faith) the prostitute Rehab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient. 32 And what more shall I say? I do not have time to tell about Gideon, Barack, Samson and Jephthah, about David and Samuel and the prophets, 33 who through Amanah (Faith) conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the fury of the flames, and escaped the edge of the sword; whose weakness was turned to strength; and who became powerful in battle and routed foreign armies. 35 Women received back their dead, raised to life again. There were others who were tortured, refusing to be released so that they might gain an even better resurrection. 36 Some faced jeers and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. 37 They were put to death by stoning; they were sawed in two; they were killed by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and mistreated— 38 the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, living in caves and in holes in the ground. 39 These were all commended for their Amanah (Faith), yet none of them received what had been promised,

He is able to do what you can't. He already has a plan. אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)'s not bewildered. Go to Him.”
