

The Ancient Name of the Messiah / Savior

Before the foundation of the Heavens and the earth - the Father had one Name: אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה (pronounced Yah-oo-Ah: YAHUAH)!

The Father Yahuah Himself revealed to mankind the only Name of His Son: (אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה) (pronounced Yah-oo-Sha: YAHUSHA)!

Neither the Father or His Son should be referred to as ‘god’, ‘lord’, ‘Jehovah’, ‘Jesus’, or ‘Christ’. They are Pagan Names and Titles, therefore, they are blasphemous and sinful to use.

Hebrew reads from right to left, while Greek reads from left to right. Whenever you see the letter H followed by a number (H-1234), this is a reference to the Hebrew section of the Strong's. Whenever you see the letter G followed by a number (G-1234), this is a reference to the Greek section of the Strong's.

It is strongly recommended the use of an Interlinear Bible. An Interlinear Bible will enable you to read the Scriptures in its original language and get a better understanding of very important words.

In Yahuchanan/John 5:43, Ha Mashyach (the Messiah) said that He came bearing the Name of the Father אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה (Yahuah). If all flesh will bow at the Name of the Savior, and every tongue shall confess that Ha Mashyach is Savior and Master to the esteem of אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה Elohim (God) (Philippians 2:10-11); how can we think for one second that the Name is not important?

We will take an in depth look at the name of the Savior, and the actual prophecy of how the Hebrew spelling would appear. The Savior's Name is written as אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה (Yahusha) in Ancient Hebrew, but for this study, we will use the modern Hebrew script to breakdown the scriptures.

אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה : The Prophesied Mashyach

אֱלֹהִים foretold what His Son's Name would be. ZakarYah/Zechariah 6:11-12 reads, “And you shall take the silver and gold, and make a crown, and set it upon the head of אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה, the son of Yahutzdak (which means אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה is righteous) the high priest. And speak unto him, saying, This speaks אֱלֹהִים / יְהוָה of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose Name is The BRANCH! From His place, He shall branch out and build the Hykal (Temple) of אֵלֹהִים / יהוה.” As we can see in this chapter, וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע was the High Priest who would build the temple of אֵלֹהִים / יהוה. This scripture indeed speaks of ha Mashiach, and even gives His Name as the Branch: yod he uau (Vav) shin ayin וְהוֹשֵׁעַ. The High priest in ZakarYah/Zechariah foreshadowed the coming ha Mashiach, and bore the same exact Name. What was the High Priest’s Name? וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע.

We can now do a letter for letter transliteration of the Son’s Name according to the way it was written: וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע (Modern Hebrew). We know that the first three letters of ha Mashiach’s Name is pronounced as YAHU because of the yod he uau (Vav) יהו. As you can see, the Father’s Name is already evident in the Son. The fourth letter is the shin ש which gives us the “sh” sound.

Now we have YAHUSH (Yah-oo-sh). The final Hebrew letter is the ayin ע. The ayin ע is pronounced as the letter ‘a’ in Yah. So this gives us YA-HU-SHA (pronounced: Yah-oo-shah). Yod he uau (Vav) shin ayin וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע is the only way the Saviors Name is spelled.

Some translations have rendered the High Priest as Joshua (Yahushua). It is important to note that Joshua is not a true name, but a name implemented by those who wish to conceal the truth of וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע by changing names and meanings.

In Dabarym/Deuteronomy 32:44 and B’madbar/Numbers 13:8, we can read of the original name of Joshua the son of Nun: Hoshea or Hosea (וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע), the same as the Prophet Hosea). Hoshea has a Hebrew spelling of he uau (Vav) shin ayin וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע and is Hu-sha (pronounced: hoo-shah). Husha (Hosea) is found 11 times in the Hebrew text, and means Savior or Deliverer. In verse 16 of B’madbar/Numbers chapter 13, Mashah/Moses changed the name of Husha (original name of Joshua) to Yahusha (new name of Joshua). Moshe/Moses added the Hebrew letter yod י to he uau (Vav) shan ayn וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע (Husha) and called the new name yod he uau (Vav) shin ayin וְהוֹשֵׁעַ / יהושע (Yahusha), which is to say, “Yahu is Savior / Deliverer”!

Given the various Hebrew spellings of the original name of Joshua, and the fact that there were (4) four men that bore the same name as the coming ha Mashiach: remember the prophesy concerning Yahusha in ZakarYah/Zachariah 6.

אֲיָאֵל / יְהוָה (Yahuah) said the ha Mashiach would have the same name as Yahusha the son of Yahutzdak, not Yahusha the son of Nun. Yahusha the Priest, son of Yahutzdak (אֲיָאֵל / יְהוָה is righteous), was crowned and named the Branch who would build the Hykal (Temple). YAHUSHA is the Name of Ha Mashiach, the Savior of the World!

Remember we find the Name of YAHUAH preserved within the tribe of YahuDah! By removing the letter D (daleth ד in Hebrew), YahuDah becomes YAHUAH.

If we were to remove the shin ש from YAHUSHA אֲיָאֵל / יְהוֹשֻׁעַ , you would have yod he uau (Vav) ayin YAHUA יְהוּעַ (Yah-oo-ah) which would be pronounced the same way as אֲיָאֵל / יְהוָה !

So YAHUAH and YAHUSHA are marvelously woven together. YAHUSHA came in the Name of YAHUAH, just like He said: Halal U Yah!!

This is why Mashaly/Proverbs 30:4 challenges us to discover the true Name. אֲיָאֵל / יְהוָה (Yahuah) and אֲיָאֵל / יְהוֹשֻׁעַ (Yahusha) are the proper spellings of the Set-Apart Names.

Don't be lead astray by modern spins to the Hebrew language, Look at the way the Names were originally written and spelled in Paleo Hebrew. If any transliteration of yod he uau (Vav) he אֲיָאֵל / יְהוָה (YAHUAH), provides you with any other name, refer back to this study and challenge the theory in question. Likewise, if any transliteration of yod he uau (Vav) shin ayin אֲיָאֵל / יְהוֹשֻׁעַ YAHUSHA gives you any other name: "Reject it!" (I Thessalonians 5:21).

We are chosen and set apart for His Name. Look up every scripture that says the Name, and then you will discover how important it is to know the Name.

Put away all the false names that mankind uses to mask the true Name. If we, the people of אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) who are called by His Name, will humble ourselves and pray, seek His face, and repent of our evil; אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) will hear from heaven, forgive our sins and heal the land.
